

Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation

RIDE TO MAST

Show your love of the Blue Ridge Parkway by riding with Mast General Store on September 13, 2008
from Old Fort, NC to the Original Mast General Store in Valle Crucis, NC.

The ride is being organized by the Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation in partnership with Mast General Store to promote the proposed North Carolina Blue Ridge Parkway motorcycle tag.

Motorcyclists will meet at The Mountain Gateway Museum in Old Fort and then ride to the Original Mast General Store in Valle Crucis on Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation Day. Each rider will receive a Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation "Ride" pin in the shape of the motorcycle tag. Each rider who signs up for a North Carolina Blue Ridge Parkway motorcycle tag will receive a Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation/Mast t-shirt.

 Registration begins at 8 a.m. at the Mountain gateway Museum on Catawba Avenue in Old Fort, North Carolina (just off US 70 in downtown Old Fort). The fee is $20 per bike. First bike out at 10 a.m.

The ride will terminate at the Original Mast General Store in historic Valle Crucis, NC with music and prizes. Throughout the day Mast General Store will donate 10% of its retail sales proceeds to the Blue Ridge Parkway Foundation.